No. 172.—The Government of India have stated that cases have recently been brought to their notice where there has been considerable delay in the payment of balances in the General Provident Fund to subscribers who have retired, or have gone on leave preparatory to retirement. It is obvious that any delay in such payments is a serious matter often resulting in hardship and loss to the subscriber. The Auditor General has represented that the Audit Department is usually considered solely responsible for such delay, whereas, as a matter of fact, delay is sometimes caused by the failure on the part of the Head of an office to give the Audit office essential information. His remarks apply also to delay in the issue of pensions, which is often due to the negligence on the part of the authorities whose business it is to prepare the pension papers. Steps have already been taken by him to reduce, as far as possible, delay in the Audit offices. Heads of offices and departments are requested to see that applications for pensions and for payment of Provident Fund balances are disposed of with the greatest possible expedition and are informed that in future disciplinary action will be taken against the officers concerned if it is found that delay has been caused by their neglect.

Fort St. George, July 23, 1924 (G.O. No. 1116, Revenue).

No. 236.—Under section 6 of the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules for the administration of the Agency tracts of the Madras Presidency and for the regulation of the procedure of the officers appointed to administer them.

Interpretation clause.

(1) 'Decree' shall include orders passed under rules 39 (1) and 48 (3) but not orders under rules 33 and 35.

(2) 'Agency Divisional Officer' means an officer in charge of a Revenue subdivision which is wholly or partly Agency.

(3) For the purpose of these rules the Courts of Agency Divisional Officers and Agency Munsifs are subordinate to the Agent to the Governor, or the Government Agent, as the case may be, and Courts of Agency Munsifs are subordinate to the Agency Divisional Officers within the local limits of whose jurisdiction they are situate.

Powers.

Rule 1.—(1) The Collectors and District Magistrates of Ganjām and Vizagapatam under the designation of Agents to the Governor and the Collector and District Magistrate, Gōdāvari, under the designation of Government Agent, shall be the Collectors, District Magistrates and District Judges within the Agency tracts included in their respective districts. An Agency Divisional Officer shall exercise within the Agency portion of his subdivision or for the purpose of any inquiry which he may be directed by the Agent to the Governor, or the Government Agent, as the case may be, to conduct, in any part of the Agency in his jurisdiction, all the powers which under any enactment in force in the Agency are exercised in the non-scheduled districts of the Madras Presidency by subordinate and Assistant Collectors by virtue of section 3 of Madras Regulation VII of 1828 or otherwise.

(2) For the trial and determination of suits coming before them, the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be and the Agency Additional District Judge are hereby vested with the same powers as are vested in the district and revenue courts in the non-scheduled districts of the Madras Presidency and the Agency Divisional Officers with the same powers as are vested in the subordinate and revenue courts subject to the modifications contained in these rules.

(3) The Agent to the Governor, or the Government Agent, as the case may be, is empowered to appoint any of his subordinates or with the sanction of Government any other duly qualified person as Agency Munsif to exercise in such places and within such portion of the Agency tract within his district as he may consider proper the jurisdiction vested in the District Munsif in the non-scheduled districts of the Madras Presidency, subject to the modifications contained in these rules.

(4) The Agency Additional District Judge, if any, appointed for any Agency area shall unless the Government otherwise direct exercise in such area all the powers of the Agent to the Governor and the Government Agent except those conferred by rules 1 (1), 1 (3), 4, 5 (1) second proviso, 10 (1), 12, 21, 23, 24, 31, 33, 35, 42 (empowering of Agency munsif), 44, 55, 57 and 60 and shall follow the procedure prescribed therein. The decisions of the Agency Additional District Judge shall have the same force and shall be subject to appeal in the same manner and to the same extent as if they were passed by the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be.

(5) Every suit, appeal or other proceeding cognizable by the Agency Additional District Judge under these rules shall, ordinarily, be instituted in the court of the Agency Additional District Judge except during the period that the court is closed when such suit, appeal, or proceeding may be instituted in the court of the Government Agent or the Agent to the Governor, as the case may be, having jurisdiction.

CIVIL JUSTICE.

Valuation of suits.

Rule 2.—(1) The valuation of a suit or appeal will be made according to the provisions of the Court Fees Act, 1870, as amended by Madras Act of 1922 and of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887. The court may admit, without payment of institution fee any suit or appeal other than a suit or appeal brought to recover compensation for loss of caste, libel, slander, abusive language or assault, if satisfied that the plaintiff or appellant is not able to pay; provided that if the applicant was allowed to sue or appeal as a pauper in the court from whose decree the appeal is preferred, no further inquiry in respect of his pauperism shall be necessary unless the appellate court sees cause to direct such inquiry.

(2) Where the pauper succeeds in the suit or appeal instituted by him, the court may direct the recovery of the amount of court fees or of such portion thereof as the court may deem fit.

Jurisdiction of courts.

Rule 3.—The courts shall (subject to the provisions herein contained) have jurisdiction to try all suits of a civil nature, excepting suits of which their cognizance is either expressly or impliedly barred.

Rule 4.—Claims to succession to or of any interest in the estates of any chief, or to any pension or grant of money or land revenue conferred or made by the British or any former Government shall not be entertained in any court. Such claims shall be inquired into by the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, and he shall submit the result of the inquiries for the orders of the Government who may pass such orders as they think fit.

[Note.—Claims to pensions and grants of money or land revenue are governed by the provisions of the Pensions Act XXIII of 1871.]

Rule 5.—(1) Agency Munsifs shall have cognizance of suits for moveable or immovable property not exceeding in value Rs. 500 but shall not have cognizance of any suit in which any Zamindar, Bissoyee or any Mansabdar, Muttadar or other feudal hill chief may be concerned.

Provided that the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, or Agency Divisional Officer having jurisdiction may transfer any suit in which a hill chief is concerned if both parties desire such transfer or consent thereto and if the value of the suit does not exceed Rs. 500 to the Agency Munsif within whose local jurisdiction the cause of action has arisen for disposal by him.

Provided also that the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, with the sanction of Government, may authorize any Agency Munsif by name to take cognizance of suits up to any amount not exceeding Rs. 3,000 in value.

(2) Suits cognizable by an Agency Munsif shall be instituted only in the Court of the Agency Munsif having jurisdiction.

Rule 6.—With the exception firstly of suits which are cognizable by Agency Munsifs and secondly of the suits described in rule 7, all suits shall be instituted in the court of the Agency Divisional Officer having jurisdiction.

Rule 7.—Suits of a value exceeding Rs. 5,000 or for revenue paying lands of which the value of the annual produce exceeds Rs. 500 shall be instituted in the Court of the Agent to the Governor, or the Government Agent, as the case may be.

Rule 8.—No court shall try any suit or issue in which the matter directly and substantially in issue has been directly and substantially in issue in a former suit between the same parties, or between parties under whom they or any of them claim, litigating under the same title, in a court competent to try such subsequent suit or the suit in which such issue has been subsequently raised, and has been heard and finally decided by such court.

Explanation I.—The expression 'former suit' shall denote a suit which has been decided prior to the suit in question whether or not it was instituted prior thereto.

Explanation II.—For the purposes of this rule, the competence of a court shall be determined irrespective of any provisions as to a right of appeal from the decision of such court.

Explanation III.—The matter above referred to must in the former suit have been alleged by one party and either denied or admitted, expressly or impliedly, by the other.

Explanation IV.—Any matter which might and ought to have been made ground of defence or attack in such former suit shall be deemed to have been a matter directly and substantially in issue in such suit.

Explanation V.—Any relief claimed in the plaint, which is not expressly granted by the decree, shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to have been refused.

Explanation VI.—Where persons litigate bona fide in respect of a public right or of a private right claimed in common for themselves and others, all persons interested in such right shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to claim under the persons so litigating.

Rule 9.—(1) Every suit shall include the whole of the claim which the plaintiff is entitled to make in respect of the cause of action; but a plaintiff may relinquish any portion of his claim in order to bring the suit within the jurisdiction of any court.

(2) Where a plaintiff omits, except with the leave of the court, to sue in respect of, or intentionally relinquishes, any portion of his claim, he shall not afterwards sue in respect of the portion so omitted or relinquished.

(3) A person entitled to more than one relief in respect of the same cause of action may sue for all or any of such reliefs; but if he omits, except with the leave of the court, to sue for all such reliefs, he shall not afterwards sue for any relief so omitted.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this rule an obligation and a collateral security for its performance and successive claims arising under the same obligation shall be deemed respectively to constitute but one cause of action.

Rule 10.—(1) The civil courts of each grade shall receive, try and determine suits hereby declared to be cognizable by those courts, if in the case of suits for land or other immovable property, such land or property or any portion of such land or property is situated within the limits to which their respective jurisdictions extend, and in all other cases if the cause of action wholly or in part shall have arisen or the defendant or any one of the defendants at the time of the commencement of the suit dwells or personally works for gain within such limits. In no case shall the courts have jurisdiction to adjudicate upon property not within the jurisdiction of the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be:

Provided that if in a suit, not being one for land or other immovable property, the defendant or all the defendants do not reside within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, the suit shall not be instituted except with the previous consent of the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent or the Agency Divisional Officer to whom the court in which the suit is intended to be instituted is subordinate.

(2) Where a suit which may be instituted in any one of two or more courts subordinate to the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, or the Agency Divisional Officer is instituted in one of such courts, the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent or the Agency Divisional Officer, as the case may be, shall on application by the defendant, and after hearing the objections, if any, of the other parties determine in which of the several courts having jurisdiction the suit shall proceed, and he may, where necessary, transfer the suit to such court.

Transfer of suits.

Rule 11.—On the application of any of the parties and after notice to the other parties and after hearing such of them as desire to be heard, or of his own motion without such notice, the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, may at any stage—

(1) transfer to his court any original suit or appeal pending in any other court within the Agency tract included in his district;

(2) transfer to the court of any Agency Divisional Officer subordinate to him any original suit or appeal pending in any other court of equal or inferior jurisdiction within the Agency tracts included in his district;

(3) transfer to the court of any Agency Munsif subordinate to him any original suit pending in the court of any other Agency Munsif so subordinate;

(4) transfer to the court of any Agency Divisional Officer subordinate to him any original suit or appeal pending in his court.

Rule 12.—On the application of the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, made with the sanction of Government, the High Court may transfer any suit, appeal or proceeding instituted in any Agency court to any civil court of equal or superior jurisdiction outside the area comprised in the jurisdiction of the said Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent.

Rule 13.—An Agency Divisional Officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, transfer any original suit pending in his own court or that of any Agency Munsif within his subdivision to any other Agency Munsif within his subdivision competent to decide such suit.

Institution, trial and determination of suits.

Rule 14.—Every suit shall be instituted, every application made and every appeal preferred by presentation of plaint, application or memorandum of appeal to the court or to such officer as may be appointed in this behalf.

Rule 15.—Except where otherwise provided in the following rules, the trial of civil suits shall be conducted by the courts in the following manner:—

(a) The parties or their pleaders may present at or before the first hearing, written statements of their respective cases to the court, but no written statement shall be received after the first hearing of the suit, unless permitted by the court.

(b) The court may at any time before final judgment call for a written statement, or an additional written statement, from any of the parties.

(c) Written statements shall be as brief as the nature of the case admits, and shall not be argumentative, nor by way of answer one to the other; but each statement shall be confined, as much as possible, to a simple narrative of the facts which the party by whom or on whose behalf it is made, believes to be material to the case, and which he believes he will be able to prove, if called upon by the court.

(d) The court may reject or return for amendment a written statement which may appear to be argumentative, or unnecessarily prolix, or to contain matter irrelevant to the suit.

(e) The court may at any stage of the proceedings allow either party to alter or amend his pleadings in such manner and on such terms as may be just, and all such amendments shall be made as may be necessary for the purpose of determining the real questions in controversy between the parties.

(f) If at the first hearing of a suit it shall appear that the parties are not at issue on any question of law or fact, the court may at once give judgment.

(g) When at the first hearing of a suit it appears that the parties are at issue on some question of law or fact, if the court shall be satisfied that no further argument or evidence than that which the parties or their pleaders can at once supply is required upon any such of the issues of law or fact as may be sufficient for the decision of the suit, the court, after hearing such argument and evidence, may proceed to determine such issue or issues and, if the finding thereon is sufficient for the decision of the suit may pronounce judgment accordingly; otherwise the court shall postpone the further hearing of the suit and shall fix a day for the production of such further evidence or for such further argument as the case may require; provided that if either party shall fail at the first or any adjourned hearing without sufficient cause to produce the evidence on which he relies, the court may at once give judgment

Rule 16.—The rules prescribed by the Code of Civil Procedure for the examination of witnesses in appealable cases shall apply to all trials of original suits and proceedings of civil nature held before the Agency courts. In cases in which a witness may reside at a considerable distance, or may be unable from sickness or other cause to attend the court, the court may issue a commission for his examination on interrogatories or otherwise by the nearest Agency Divisional Officer or Agency Munsif or any other suitable person or, if his residence be outside the Agency, by the nearest District Munsif.

Rule 17.—In suits for recovery of money as soon as judgment is pronounced, the form appended to these rules describing the suit and judgment shall be filled up and delivered to the successful party.

Rule 18.—Clerical or arithmetical mistakes in judgments, decrees or orders or errors arising therein from any accidental slip or omission may at any time be corrected by the court either of its own motion or on the application of any of the parties.

Rule 19.—(1) Parties shall be at liberty at any stage to adjust a suit by any lawful agreement or razinama. The court shall on production of the agreement or razinama order it to be recorded and pass a decree in accordance therewith so far as it relates to the suit.

(2) In all suits settled by razinama, the plaintiff shall be entitled to a refund of half the amount of court fees paid on the plaint if the razinama shall have been presented before any hearing of the suit has been held.

Rule 20.—In suits by or against minors or persons of unsound mind, the principles underlying Order XXXII of the first schedule of the Civil Procedure Code shall as far as practicable be observed

Pleaders in Agency courts.

Rule 21.—(1) The Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, is authorized at his discretion to appoint by sanad such number of pleaders in his own court or in any court subordinate to him as may from time to time appear to him necessary; provided that persons not qualified to practise in courts under the Legal Practitioners Act shall not be allowed to appear except in Agency Munsifs' Courts and provided also that sanads shall not ordinarily be refused to advocates and vakils of any High Court; in case of such refusal reasons shall be recorded in writing by the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be.—

(2) Any of the zamindars or hill chiefs within the Agency tracts described in rule 5, may conduct his business in the courts either in person or by his own special mukhtiars, provided that no suits for remuneration of such mukhtiars shall be received or filed in any court.

(3) The fees payable to an adversary's pleader shall be in accordance with the scale prescribed by the High Court of Judicature at Madras.

(4) The Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, shall be competent to punish any misconduct of a pleader by fine not exceeding Rs 50 leviable as an arrear of land revenue, or by cancellation or suspension of his sanad or by fine in addition to cancellation or suspension.

Service of Processes.

Rule 22.—All civil processes of the courts situated within the jurisdiction of the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, shall be executed through the headman of the village or mutta in which the person to or against whom the process is issued may reside or the property in respect of which it is issued may be situated or through the jamadar of the court or through the process-servers employed by the court for the purpose. The process shall be returnable on a day to be fixed by the court with an endorsement certifying the manner in which it may have been executed.

Rule 23.—When the person to or against whom any process is issued resides or the property in respect of which it is issued is situated within the jurisdiction of any court of the Agency tracts other than the court issuing the process, the latter court shall forward the process to the court of the Agency Divisional Officer within whose jurisdiction the person to or against whom the process is issued resides or the property in respect of which it is issued is situated. The court receiving the process shall cause it to be executed as if it were issued by such court, but in any case in which such court considers the execution of the process inadvisable, it may refuse to execute the process pending the orders of the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be.

Rule 24.—Any civil process issued at the instance of any authority in British India situated beyond the jurisdiction of the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, to or against any person subject to or residing within such jurisdiction or in respect of property situated within such jurisdiction shall be forwarded by letter to the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, who shall execute the same as if it were his own process and shall return the said process by letter to the authority from whom it issued duly endorsed by his proper officer showing what has been done thereon.

Provided that, for reasons to be recorded, the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent may refuse to execute or may stay the execution of any such process. But such refusal or order of the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent shall be subject to revision by the Governor in Council.

Rule 25.—Except as above provided the provisions of Order V, Civil Procedure Code, shall apply to the issue and service of summons.

Appearance of parties and consequences of non-appearance.

Rule 26.—(1) Where neither party appears when the suit is called on for hearing, the court may make an order that the suit be dismissed.

(2) Where a suit is dismissed for non-appearance, the plaintiff may (subject to the law of limitation) bring a fresh suit, or he may apply for an order to set the dismissal aside, and if he satisfies the court that there was sufficient cause for his non-appearance, the court shall make an order setting aside the dismissal and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit.

(3) Where the defendant appears and the plaintiff does not appear when the suit is called on for hearing, the court shall make an order that the suit be dismissed, unless the defendant admits the claim, or part thereof, in which case the court shall pass a decree against the defendant upon such admission, and, where part only of the claim has been admitted, shall dismiss the suit so far as it relates to the remainder.

(4) Where a suit is wholly or partly dismissed under rule (3) the plaintiff shall be precluded from bringing a fresh suit in respect of the same cause of action. But he may apply for an order to set the dismissal aside and if he satisfies the court that there was sufficient cause for his non-appearance when the suit was called on for hearing, the court shall make an order setting aside the dismissal upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit. No order shall be made under this rule unless notice of the application has been served on the opposite party.

Rule 27.—(1) Where the plaintiff appears and the defendant does not appear when the suit is called on for hearing, then—

(a) if it is proved that the summons was duly served, the court may proceed ex parte;

(b) if it is not proved that the summons was duly served, the court shall direct a second summons to be issued and served on the defendant;

(c) if it is proved that the summons was served on the defendant but not in sufficient time to enable him to appear and answer on the day fixed in the summons, the court shall postpone the hearing of the suit to a future day to be fixed by the court, and shall direct notice of such day to be given to the defendant.

(2) Where it is owing to the plaintiff's default that the summons was not duly served or was not served in sufficient time, the court shall order the plaintiff to pay the costs occasioned by the postponement.

(3) Where the court has adjourned the hearing of the suit ex parte, and the defendant, at or before such hearing, appears and assigns good cause for his previous non-appearance, he may, upon such terms as the court directs as to costs or otherwise, be heard in answer to the suit as if he had appeared on the day fixed for his appearance.

(4) In any case in which a decree is passed ex parte, against a defendant, he may apply to the Court by which the decree was passed for an order to set it aside; and if he satisfies the court that the summons was not duly served, or that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the suit was called on for hearing, the court shall make an order setting aside the decree as against him upon such terms as to costs, payment into court or otherwise as it thinks fit, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit:

Provided that where the decree is of such a nature that it cannot be set aside as against such defendant only it may be set aside as against all or any of the other defendants also.

Rule 28.—No decree shall be set aside on any such application as aforesaid unless notice of the application has been served on the opposite party.

Execution of Decrees and Orders.

Rule 29.—As a general rule a party in whose favour a decree is passed in suits for the recovery of money may obtain execution thereof by the production of the document referred to in rule 17 and without any formal petition, but the court executing the decree is at liberty when it deems it advisable to have execution applied for in the ordinary manner.

Rule 30.—Save as otherwise provided in these rules, the provisions of sections 36 to 48 of the Civil Procedure Code shall apply to the execution of decrees.

Rule 31.—Subject to such conditions and limitations as may be prescribed by these rules, the court may, on the application of the decree-holder, order execution of the decree:—

(a) by delivery of any property specifically decreed;

(b) by attachment and sale or by sale without attachment of any property;

(c) by arrest and detention in prison;

(d) by appointing a receiver; or

(e) in such other manner as the nature of the relief granted may require.

No sale of immovable property shall be valid without the previous sanction of the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, or, in the case of a decree passed by an Agency Munsif, of the Divisional Officer to whom he is subordinate.

The following properties shall not be liable to attachment or sale:—

(a) the necessary wearing apparel, cooking vessels, beds and bedding of the judgment-debtor, his wife and children and such personal ornaments as, in accordance with religious usage, cannot be parted with by any woman;

(b) tools of artisans, and, where the judgment-debtor is an agriculturist, his implements of husbandry, and such cattle and seed grain as may, in the opinion of the court, be necessary to enable him to earn his livelihood as such;

(c) stipends and gratuities payable to Government pensioners;

(d) the salary of any public officer to the extent of—

(i) the whole of the salary, where the salary does not exceed twenty rupees monthly;

(ii) twenty rupees monthly, where the salary exceeds twenty rupees and does not exceed forty rupees monthly; and

(iii) one moiety of the salary in any other case;

(e) the wages of the labourers and domestic servants.

Rule 32.—(1) Where a decree is passed against a party as the legal representative of a deceased person, and the decree is for the payment of money out of the property of the deceased, it may be executed by the attachment and sale of any such property.

(2) Where no such property remains in the possession of the judgment-debtor and he fails to satisfy the Court that he has duly applied such property of the deceased as is proved to have come into his possession, the decree may be executed against the judgment-debtor to the extent of the property in respect of which he has failed so to satisfy the Court in the same manner as if the decree had been passed against him personally.

For the purposes of this rule property in the hands of a son or other descendant which is liable under Hindu Law for the payment of the debt of a deceased ancestor, in respect of which a decree has been passed, shall be deemed to be property of the deceased which has come to the hands of the son or other descendant as his legal representative.

Rule 33.—Decrees against such Rajas and Chiefs as the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, may exempt from the ordinary process shall be executed in accordance with rules that may be specially prescribed with the sanction of Government.

Rule 34.—Decrees of the High Court in suits wherein the landed possessions of a Zamindar, Bissoyi, or other feudal hill chief may have formed the subject of litigation shall not be carried into execution without the permission of the Governor in Council.

Rule 35.—Wherever it is sought to execute within the Agency tracts a decree passed by a court in British India situated outside the said tracts, the court issuing the decree shall forward the decree and a copy of the judgment in the suit to the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, who shall cause the decree to be executed in the manner provided by these rules for the execution of a decree passed by him.

Provided that for reasons to be recorded, the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, may refuse to cause any such decree to be executed, or may at any stage of the execution order the execution of any such decree to be stayed. Provided also that such refusal or order of the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent as the case may be, shall be subject to revision by the Governor in Council.

The Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, shall furnish to the Court issuing the decree a certificate of execution or a copy of his order refusing to execute or staying the execution of the decree.

Rule 36.—Whenever it is sought to execute outside the Agency tracts a decree passed by an Agency Court, the court passing the decree shall on the application of the decree-holder send it to the District Court of the district where the judgment-debtor actually and voluntarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain.

Rule 37.—The court sending a decree for execution shall send—

(a) a copy of the decree;

(b) a certificate setting forth that satisfaction of the decree has not been obtained by execution within the jurisdiction of the court by which it was passed, or where the decree has been executed in part, the extent to which satisfaction has been obtained and what part of the decree remains unsatisfied; and

(c) a copy of any order for the execution of the decree or, if no such order has been made, a certificate to that effect.

Rule 58.—Where assets are held by a Court and more persons than one have, before the receipt of such assets, made application to the court for the execution of decrees for the payment of money passed against the same judgment-debtor and have not obtained satisfaction thereof, the assets, after deducting the costs of realization, shall be rateably distributed among all such persons, in the manner provided by and subject to the limitations contained in section 73, Civil Procedure Code.

Investigation of claims and objections to execution.

Rule 59.—(1) All questions arising between the parties to the suit in which the decree was passed, or their representatives, and relating to the execution, discharge, or satisfaction of the decree, shall be determined by the court executing the decree and not by a separate suit.

(2) Where any claim is preferred to, or any objection is made to the attachment of, any property attached in execution of a decree on the ground that such property is not liable to such attachment, the court shall proceed to investigate the claim or objection with the like power as regards the examination of the claimant or objector, and in all other respects, as if he was a party to the suit:

Provided that no such investigation shall be made where the court considers that the claim or objection was designedly or unnecessarily delayed.

(3) Where the property to which the claim or objection applies has been advertised for sale, the court ordering the sale may postpone it pending the investigation of the claim or objection.

(4) The claimant or objector must adduce evidence to show that at the date of attachment he had some interest in, or was possessed of, the property attached.

(5) Where upon the said investigation the court is satisfied that for the reason stated in the claim or objection such property was not, when attached, in the possession of the judgment-debtor or of some person in trust for him, or in the occupancy of a tenant or other person paying rent to him, or that, being in the possession of the judgment-debtor at such time, it was so in his possession, not on his own account or as his own property, but on account of or in trust for some other person, or partly on his own account and partly on account of some other person, the court shall make an order releasing the property, wholly or to such extent as it thinks fit, from attachment.

(6) Where the court is satisfied that the property was at the time it was attached in the possession of the judgment-debtor as his own property and not on account of any other person, or was in the possession of some other person in trust for him, or in the occupancy of a tenant, or other person paying rent to him, the court shall disallow the claim.

(7) Where the court is satisfied that the property is subject to a mortgage or charge in favour of some person not in possession, and thinks fit to continue the attachment, it may do so, subject to such mortgage or charge.

(8) Where a claim or an objection is preferred, the party against whom an order is made may within one year from the date of such order institute a suit to establish the right which he claims to the property in dispute, but, subject to the result of such suit, if any, the order shall be conclusive.

Rule 40.—(1) Where immovable property has been sold in execution of a decree, any person, either owning such property or holding an interest therein by virtue of a title acquired before such sale, may within 30 days apply to have the sale set aside on his depositing in court—

(a) for payment to the purchaser, a sum equal to 5 per cent of the purchase-money, and

(b) for payment to the decree-holder, the amount specified in the proclamation of sale as that for the recovery of which the sale was ordered, less any amount which may, since the date of such proclamation of sale, have been received by the decree-holder.

(2) Where a person applies under rule 41 to set aside the sale of his immovable property, he shall not, unless he withdraws his application, be entitled to make or prosecute an application under this rule.

(3) Nothing in this rule shall relieve the judgment-debtor from any liability he may be under in respect of costs and interest not covered by the proclamation of sale.

Rule 41.—(1) Where any immovable property has been sold in execution of a decree, the decree-holder, or any person entitled to share in a rateable distribution of assets, or whose interests are affected by the sale, may within 30 days apply to the court to set aside the sale on the ground of a material irregularity or fraud in publishing or conducting it:

Provided that no sale shall be set aside on the ground of irregularity or fraud unless upon the facts proved the court is satisfied that the applicant has sustained substantial injury by reason of such irregularity or fraud.

(2) The purchaser at any such sale in execution of a decree may apply to the court to set aside the sale, on the ground that the judgment-debtor had no saleable interest in the property sold.

Interim protection of property.

Rule 42.—In order to prevent the ends of justice from being defeated the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, or an Agency Divisional Officer or with the sanction of the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, an Agency Munsif may

(a) grant a temporary injunction and in case of disobedience commit the person guilty thereof to the civil prison and order that his property be attached and sold and out of the proceeds the court may award such compensation as it thinks fit;

(b) appoint a receiver of any property and enforce the performance of his duties by attaching and selling his property;

(c) make such other interlocutory orders as may appear to be just and convenient; and may discharge such order at any time.

Rule 43.—(1) When a receiver is appointed the court may, by general or special order, fix the amount to be paid as remuneration for the services of the receiver.

(2) Every receiver so appointed shall

(a) furnish such security (if any) as the court thinks fit, duly to account for what he shall receive in respect of the property ;

(b) submit his accounts at such periods and in such form as the court directs ;

(c) pay the amount due from him as the court directs ; and

(d) be responsible for any loss occasioned to the property by his wilful default or gross negligence.

(3) Where a receiver

(a) fails to submit his accounts at such periods and in such form as the court directs, or

(b) fails to pay the amount due from him as the court directs, or

(c) occasions loss to the property by his wilful default or gross negligence, the court may direct his property to be attached and may sell such property, and may apply the proceeds to make good any amount found to be due from him or any loss occasioned by him, and shall pay the balance (if any) to the receiver.

Rule 44.—(1) In order to provide for the custody of movable property attached under the orders of a civil court, the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, may, with the sanction of Government, appoint a curator for any court or group of courts.

(2) The curator shall receive such remuneration as the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, may, with the approval of Government, from time to time, fix, and shall also furnish security to such amount, and enter into a bond in such form, as the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, may direct, for the proper performance of his duties.

(3) All movable property attached under orders of the court or of any one of the group of courts shall be placed in the custody of the said curator.

Provided that the property, if it consists of livestock, or other articles which cannot conveniently be removed from the locality where the attachment is effected, may be left in the locality where it has been attached at the instance and in the charge, of the judgment-debtor, decree-holder, or any other person claiming to be interested therein, on condition that the judgment-debtor, decree-holder, or such other person enters into a bond with one or more sufficient sureties to keep the property safely and to produce it when called upon to do so.

(4) Every person who applies to a court for the attachment of movable property shall deposit, in addition to the process-fee, a sum to be fixed by the court, which shall be sufficient to cover the remuneration of the curator and all expenses connected with the removal, custody, preservation and maintenance of the property attached. The sum so deposited shall form part of the costs of execution of the suit.

Special proceedings.

Rule 45.—(1) Where any matter has been referred to arbitration without the intervention of a court, and an award has been made thereon, any person interested in the award may apply to any court having jurisdiction over the subject-matter of the award that the award be filed in court.

(2) The application shall be in writing and shall be numbered and registered as a suit between the applicant as plaintiff and the other parties as defendants.

(3) The court shall direct notice to be given to the parties to the arbitration, other than the applicant, requiring them to show cause, within a time specified, why the award should not be filed.

(4) Where the court is satisfied that the matter has been referred to arbitration and that an award has been made thereon the court shall order the award to be filed and shall proceed to pronounce judgment according to the award, unless the award is illegal or defective on the face of it or tainted with fraud of either party or the corruption or misconduct of the arbitrator.

(5) Upon the judgment so pronounced a decree shall follow, and no appeal shall lie from such decree except in so far as the decree is in excess of or not in accordance with the award.

Rule 46.—(1) Whenever it shall appear to a court other than that of an Agency Munsif before which a suit has been filed or to which a suit has been transferred or remanded that the subject in dispute or any issue in the suit is suitable for reference to arbitration the court may refer the suit or issue to arbitration before a panchayat of three or five members, as the court may determine. If the number of panchayatdars is three, one shall be chosen with the court's approval by each party and the third member who shall preside shall be chosen by the court. If the number of panchayatdars is five, four shall be chosen by the parties having separate or conflicting interests in the subject in suit in the manner prescribed by the court and the fifth member who shall preside shall be chosen by the court. The decision of the panchayat shall be filed in court in the form of a razinama petition. The court shall then satisfy itself that the terms of the razinama are fully understood by the parties and shall pass a decree thereon, provided that the court may, after recording reasons, reject a panchayat's decision which appears to be clearly unjust or inconclusive.

(2) An Agency Munsif may, if both parties consent in writing, likewise refer the suit or issue to arbitration before panchayatdars and the procedure prescribed in clause (1) shall thereupon be followed.

Appeals.

Rule 47.—(1) From every original decree passed by an Agency Munsif, an appeal shall lie to the Agency Divisional officer of the subdivision in which the local limits of the Agency Munsif's jurisdiction are included and from every original decree by the Agency Divisional officer an appeal shall lie to the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent as the case may be.

When an original suit which is triable by an Agency Divisional officer or by the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent as the case may be is transferred to a subordinate court under rule 13 or rule 11 (4), the appeal against the decree of the subordinate court shall lie to the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent as the case may be or the High Court respectively.

(2) From every appellate decree passed by an Agency Divisional officer an appeal shall lie to the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent as the case may be on the grounds specified in section 100, Civil Procedure Code, provided that the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, may, for reasons to be recorded, admit a special appeal on questions of fact.

When an appeal triable by the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent as the case may be is transferred for disposal to an Agency Divisional officer under rule 11 (4), the appeal, if any lies, against the Agency Divisional officer's appellate decision, shall be to the High Court.

Rule 48.—From every decree passed by the Government Agent or the Agent to the Governor in appeal from an original decree passed by any court subordinate to him an appeal shall lie to the High Court, on the grounds specified in section 100, Civil Procedure Code.

Decrees passed by the Government Agent or the Agent to the Governor in second appeal from original decrees passed by Agency Munsifs shall be final but the High Court may for special reasons require him to review his judgment as they may direct.

Rule 49.—From every original decree passed by the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent as the case may be an appeal shall lie to the High Court.

Rule 50.—When the appeal is from the decree of an Agency Munsif or an Agency Divisional officer, the appellate court may, after fixing a day for hearing the appellant or his pleader and hearing him, if it finds no ground to proceed with the appeal dismiss it; if it does not so dismiss, it shall cause a notice to be issued to the respondent and proceed to dispose of such appeal as far as possible in the manner prescribed by the Code of Civil Procedure.

Rule 51.—An appellate court may, for sufficient reason, call for additional evidence in any suit from which an appeal has been preferred or remand a suit for fresh trial.

Rule 52.—An appeal shall not operate as a stay of proceedings under a decree or order appealed from except so far as the Appellate Court may order, nor shall execution of a decree be stayed by reason only of an appeal having been preferred from the decree; but the Appellate Court may, for sufficient cause, order stay of execution of such decree.

Rule 53.—Nothing contained in these rules shall be deemed to authorize an appeal from the decree passed in accordance with the award under rule 45 (5) or in accordance with the razinama under rule 46.

Rule 54.—The Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, may, for sufficient cause, review his own judgment. He may, for sufficient cause, on the application of any party to a suit decided by any subordinate court, direct review of its judgment. He may further empower any subordinate court to review its judgments for sufficient cause. Provided that no review shall be admissible under this rule in case in which an appeal has been preferred and no application for review shall be disposed of without notice to the parties concerned.

Rule 55.—The Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent, as the case may be, for the purpose of satisfying himself that a decree or order made in any case decided by a court subordinate to him was according to law, may call for the case and pass such order with respect thereto as he thinks fit.

Rule 56.—The period of limitation for an appeal from the decree of an agency munsif or an agency divisional officer or for review of a judgment shall be six weeks from the date of the passing of the decree.

The period of limitation for an appeal to the High Court under these rules shall be three months from the date of the passing of the decree.

Any appeal or application for a review of judgment under these rules may be admitted after the period of limitation prescribed therefor when the appellant or applicant satisfies the court that he had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal or making the application within such period.

General.

Rule 57.—The Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent as the case may be will submit to the High Court statements of business done by him, the Additional District Judge, the Divisional Officers and the Agency Munsifs in such form and on such dates as the High Court may direct.

Rule 58.—(1) Where one of two or more plaintiffs dies and the right to sue does not survive to the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs alone, or a sole plaintiff or sole surviving plaintiff dies and the right to sue survives, the court, on an application made in that behalf, shall cause the legal representative of the deceased plaintiff to be made a party and shall proceed with the suit.

(2) Where within six months from the date of the death of the deceased plaintiff no application is made under sub-rule (1), the suit shall abate so far as the deceased plaintiff is concerned, and, on the application of the defendant, the court may award to him the costs which he may have incurred in defending the suit, to be recovered from the estate of the deceased plaintiff.

(3) Where one of two or more defendants dies and the right to sue does not survive against the surviving defendant or defendants alone, or a sole defendant or sole surviving defendant dies and the right to sue survives, the court, on an application made in that behalf, shall cause the legal representative of the deceased defendant to be made a party and shall proceed with the suit.

(4) Any person so made a party may make any defence appropriate to his character as legal representative of the deceased defendant.

(5) Where within six months from the date of the death of the deceased defendant no application is made under sub-rule (3), the suit shall abate as against the deceased defendant.

(6) Where a question arises as to whether any person is or is not the legal representative of a deceased plaintiff or a deceased defendant, such question shall be determined by the court.

(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing rules whether the cause of action survives or not, there shall be no abatement by reason of the death of either party between the conclusion of the hearing and the pronouncing of the judgment, but judgment may in such case be pronounced notwithstanding the death and shall have the same force and effect as if it had been pronounced before the death took place.

(8) The above provisions shall apply to appeals and other proceedings other than proceedings in execution of a decree or order. In their application to appeals and other proceedings, plaintiff shall be held to include the appellant or applicant and defendant, the respondent.

Rule 59.—All petitions against the proceedings of the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent in respect of matters not otherwise provided for in these rules must in the first instance be submitted to the Government who may if necessary refer them to the High Court.

Rule 60.—Reference will be made by the Agent to the Governor or the Government Agent as the case may be to the Government in all cases not provided for by the rules.

In the rest of the Agency the person or property of such minors and other incapacitated persons as might in the ordinary tracts be taken under the superintendence of the Court of Wards shall with the sanction of Government in each case and subject to the general control of the Board of Revenue be under the control of the Agent to the Governor of the district concerned who shall be the Court of Wards in respect of the agency tracts within his jurisdiction.

Rule 62.—(1) In conducting their local duties in the Revenue Department, the Agents to the Governor, the Government Agent and their assistants will be guided by the rules in force for the time being.

(2) The Agents to the Governor, the Government Agent and their assistants will continue in their Revenue capacity subject to the general control and orders of the Board of Revenue.

(3) It shall not, however, be incumbent on the Board of Revenue to interfere, except in matters referred to them by the Agents to the Governor and the Government Agent, unless a strong necessity for such interference shall appear.
